

SATURDAY SEPT. 12th &
SATURDAY SEPT. 19th
Mantracking Class

Lower Alabama Search and Rescue

This program will consist of a day of classroom instruction along with extensive demonstration of clues tracking methods and detailed information on recognizing clues to assist with the successful ability to follow by detailed tracking methods and the ability to maintain the distinct clues to follow the individual in question.

Day one, will be mainly classroom and sandbox detailed demonstration of methods used for successful tracking and recovery of the individual you are involved in the search to recover.

Day two, will be a review of all materials covered earlier. The next part will be hands on use of the techniques each individual student will need the following items for day and night operations.

Long pants, long sleeve shirt, matches, walking stick, heavy boots, knife/machete, two flashlights or headlight, hat, gloves, and bug spray

Contact Joel Nickles 281-799-1601 J R Costa 850-602-0203

John Wade 518-859-7381 or Ray Hogans 251-747-1451

For more information or any questions about this class

